The violation of the Terms and Conditions needs to be objective and unlawful. In that case, the contract for the provision of an Electronic Service expires after 14 days from the date the Service Provider submits a declaration of will to terminate it (notice period).
 - 7.1.4. In the case of Recipients who are not simultaneously Consumers, the Service Provider may terminate the contract for the provision of an Electronic Service with immediate effect and without stating reasons by sending the Service Recipient an appropriate statement.
- 7.2. The Service Provider and the Service Recipient may terminate the contract for the provision of an Electronic Service at any time by way of mutual agreement.

8. COMPLAINT PROCEDURE

8.1. Complaints for the Product's non-compliance with the Sales Contract:

- 8.1.1. The basis and scope of the Seller's responsibility towards the Consumer for non-compliance of the Product with the Sales Contract are stipulated, in particular, by the Act of 30 May 2014 on consumer rights (Journal of Laws of 2014, item 827).
- 8.1.2. Reports of the Product's non-compliance with the Sales Contract and the submission of a relevant request (hereinafter also: "Complaint") can be made via e-mail to the following address: biuro@nsppolska.pl or in writing to: ul. Olkuska 7, 02-604 Warszawa.
- 8.1.3. In the Complaint, the Customer is to provide: their name and surname (or company name), address for correspondence, type and date of occurrence of the reasons for the Complaint and a specific request.
- 8.1.4. The Seller shall respond to the Customer's request immediately, no later than within 14 days from the date of receipt of the Complaint. The response to the Complaint is sent to the address given by the Customer or in another way provided by the Customer.
- 8.1.5. The Customer may use out-of-court means of handling Complaints and pursuing claims. To take advantage of possible amicable settlement of disputes over online purchases, the Customer may submit their complaint, for example, via the EU ODR online platform, available at: <http://ec.europa.eu/consumers/odr/>.

8.2. Complaints related to the provision of Electronic Services by the Service Provider and other complaints related to Online Store operations:

- 8.2.1. Complaints related to the provision of Electronic Services via the Online Store and other complaints related to Online Store operations may be submitted by the Customer via e-mail to the following address: biuro@nsppolska.pl or in writing to: ul. Olkuska 7, 02-604 Warszawa.
- 8.2.2. In the Complaint, the Customer is to provide: their name and surname (or company name), address for correspondence, type and date of occurrence of the reasons for the Complaint and a specific request.
- 8.2.3. It is recommended that as much information and as detailed circumstances as possible regarding the subject of the Complaint be provided in the above-mentioned e-mail, in particular the type and date of irregularities and contact details, as this will facilitate and speed up Complaint resolution by the Service Provider.

8.2.4. The complaint shall be considered by the Service Provider immediately, not later than within 14 days from the date of its receipt.

8.2.5. The response of the Service Provider to the Complaint is sent to the address given by the Service Recipient in the complaint or in another way, as indicated by the Service Recipient.

9. RIGHT TO WITHDRAW FROM THE CONTRACT

9.1. A Service Recipient (Customer) who is also a Consumer, who concluded a remote contract, may withdraw from it without stating reasons, by submitting an appropriate statement in writing within fourteen (14) days. Sending a statement before the expiry of this term is sufficient to respect it. The statement may be sent via e-mail to the following address: biuro@nsppolska.pl or in writing to: ul. Olkuska 7, 02- 604 Warszawa.

9.2. An exemplary model of the form for withdrawal from a remote contract constitutes Appendix 1 to the Terms and Conditions.

9.3. In the event of withdrawal from the contract, the contract is considered null and void and the Consumer shall be released from any obligations. What the parties have provided shall be returned unchanged, unless the change was necessary within the scope of ordinary management. The return is to be made immediately, not later than within 14 days.

9.4. The Service Provider (Seller) shall perform the return to the bank account number indicated by the Consumer or in a different manner indicated by the Consumer.

9.5. The 14-day period during which the Consumer may withdraw from the contract is counted from the day they receive the parcel and, if the contract concerns the provision of Electronic Services, from the date of its conclusion.

9.6. The right to withdraw from a contract concluded remotely is not applicable to the Consumer in the following cases: (I) if the entrepreneur has fully provided the service with explicit consent from the Consumer who has been informed prior to service commencement of the loss of the right to withdraw from the contract once the service has been provided; (II) if the subject of the service is a non-prefabricated item, manufactured according to the Consumer's specification or serving to satisfy their individual needs; (III) if the subject of the service is an item that quickly deteriorates or has a short use-by date; (IV) if the subject of the service is an item delivered in a sealed package, which cannot be returned once the package is opened for reasons of health protection or hygiene, if the packaging has been opened after delivery; (V) if the items subject to the service are ones that after delivery are, due to their nature, inseparably connected with other items; (VI) if the subject of the service are alcoholic beverages, the price of which was agreed upon conclusion of the sales contract, whose delivery may take place only after 30 days and the value of which depends on market fluctuations beyond the entrepreneur's control; (VII) if the Consumer has expressly demanded a visit from the entrepreneur for urgent repairs or maintenance; (VIII) If the entrepreneur provides additional services other than those requested by the Consumer, or provides items other than spare parts necessary for the repair or maintenance, the Consumer is entitled to withdraw from the contract with regard to additional services or items.

10. FINAL PROVISIONS

- 10.1. Contracts concluded through the Online Store are concluded in accordance with Polish law and in Polish.
- 10.2. If a particular provision of the Terms and Conditions is considered invalid or ineffective, the invalidity or ineffectiveness of this provision shall not affect the validity or effectiveness of the remaining provisions of the Terms and Conditions. The Service Provider shall make efforts to replace the invalid or ineffective provision with a new, legally effective provision.
- 10.3. Modifications to the Terms and Conditions:
 - 10.3.1. The Service Provider reserves the right to amend the Terms and Conditions for important reasons, i.e. in particular: changes in legal regulations; changes in payment and delivery methods; changes in the payment scope or the form of provided Electronic Services - to the extent to which the said changes affect the implementation of the provisions of these Terms and Conditions.
 - 10.3.2. The amended Terms and Conditions are binding for the Service Recipient, if the requirements specified in Art. 384 of the Civil Code are fulfilled, i.e. the Service Recipient has been properly notified of the amendments and the Service Recipient has not terminated the contract for the provision of an Electronic Service of a continuous nature within 14 days from the date of notification.
 - 10.3.3. Amendments to the Terms and Conditions shall not, however, in any way infringe the acquired rights of the Service Recipients who are also Consumers and use the Online Store prior to the effective date of the amendments, in particular amendments to the Terms and Conditions shall not affect already placed Orders, concluded or completed Contracts.

- 10.3.4. In the event an amendment to the Terms and Conditions were to result in the introduction of any new fees or an increase in the existing ones, the Service Recipient who is a Consumer is entitled to withdraw from the contract.
- 10.4. In matters not covered by these Terms and Conditions, the provisions of generally applicable law shall apply, in particular: the Civil Code; the Act on the provision of services by electronic means of 18 July 2002 (Journal of Laws No. 144, item 1204, as amended); the Act on Consumer Rights of 30 May 2014; and other relevant provisions of Polish law.
- 10.5. Dispute resolution:
- 10.5.1. Any disputes arising between the Seller/Service Provider and the Customer/Service Recipient who is also a Consumer within the meaning of Art. 22[1] of the Civil Code shall be submitted to the competent common courts in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure of 17 November 1964 (Journal of Laws No. 43, item 296, as amended).
